..... PETITIONER

AND

The Central Commandant, AMC,
Center and School Lucknow and others.

.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The petitioner joined the Indian Army on 26.04.1994. It is stated that he sustained injuries in an accident, which took place on 05.12.2001 and after being kept in observation for some time, he was ultimately discharged through orders dated 09.05.2005. The petitioner claims that he preferred an appeal before the first respondent against the order of discharge, dated 09.05.2005. He complains that no orders have been passed thereon.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned senior Standing

Counsel for the Central Government.

The limited grievance of the petitioner is about the alleged inaction on the part of the first respondent in disposing of the appeal preferred by him. The petitioner submits that the order of discharge passed against him on 09.05.2005, is contrary to the relevant provisions of law. Inasmuch as the petitioner is out of service, his appeal needs to be attended to without any avoidable delay.

For the foregoing reasons, the writ petition is disposed of directing the first respondent to pass appropriate orders in the appeal preferred by the petitioner within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.
